You should use lots of different and unusual font styles in a presentation.

Select one:

- ◯ True
- ◯ False

Which of the following design themes would be the most suitable for a presentation in a large lecture theatre?

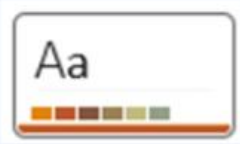
Select one:

◯ a.

◯ b.

◯ c.

◯ d.



Transitions:

Choose only the correct answers. If you choose an incorrect answer, you will not receive any marks for this question.

Select one or more:

- ☐ a. are an animated effect you can add to control the way one slides moves to the next slide
- ☐ b. can be used to signal a change in topic
- ☐ c. show that you have great skills in creating presentations
- ☐ d. should always be added to every slide

Mel created a PowerPoint presentation on a friend's computer, but after Mel opened it on her own computer, all of the fonts had changed! What happened?

Select one:

- ◯ a. Font substitution - Mel's computer did not have the same font as the one she used on her friend's computer, so Mel's computer used the fonts it had available.
- ◯ b. Mel was using a different version of PowerPoint on her computer
- ◯ c. Mel wasn't paying attention and probably changed the font by accident
- ◯ d. Mel's computer is a Mac, and her friend's computer is a Windows device

Readability is improved when

Select one:

- a. There is a high contrast between the text colour and the background colour
- b. Text is placed on top of an image
- c. Bright colours are used
- d. Text is underlined

The most efficient way to apply the same changes to all slide titles in your presentation is to

Select one:

- a. Select each slide in your presentation and make the changes to each slide individually
- b. Use the format painter to apply the same formats to each title
- c. Make the changes on the title slide in the Slide Master, which then applies changes to all titles in the presentation
- d. Change the Design Theme

Animations are useful for

Choose only the correct answers. If you choose an incorrect answer, you will not receive any marks for this question.

Select one or more:

- a. Drawing attention to important points
- b. Focussing on each point separately so that the speaker can explain each one as it appears
- c. Making sure the audience does not get bored
- d. Making your presentation appear more professional

Presentations can be used to:

Choose only the correct answers. If you choose an incorrect answer, you will not receive any marks for this question.

Select one or more:

- a. Inform people about something they need to know, eg new sales targets
- b. Educate people, eg about how to use new equipment
- c. Keep track of social media use
- d. Present a point of view to convince people to think differently

The following text is in Serif font:

> The beautiful thing about learning is that no one can take it away from you.
>
> BB King

Select one:

- True
- False

How much text should you aim to put on a slide?

Choose only the correct answers. If you choose an incorrect answer, you will not receive any marks for this question.

Select one or more:

- [ ] a. As much as you can fit on the slide
- [ ] b. No more than 6 short points per slide if there is a speaker presenting
- [ ] c. Short paragraphs for presentations without a speaker, eg if the presentation is emailed or displayed online
- [ ] d. All details so that the speaker doesn't have to explain everything

Images in a presentation are for

Select one:

- a. Helping people to understand written text content
- b. Making the presentation look attractive
- c. Filling empty spaces on slides
- d. Providing a distraction from complex text

Jin created 15 slides in his PowerPoint presentation with the Title and Content layout. He decided to use the PowerPoint Slide Master to change the colour of the titles on every slide with the Title and Content layout. Why did it change the colour on some, but not on others?

Select one:

- a. Jin had already directly changed the colour of the titles on some of the slides
- b. Jin should have used a different Design Theme to make the changes
- c. Jin should make individual changes to every slide instead of using the Slide Master
- d. Artificial Intelligence in PowerPoint prevented some slides from being changed

Serif fonts, such as Times New Roman, are more readable on screen

Select one:

- True
- False